GOSPEL OF MARK.

Triple Comparative Edition

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

So many Sunday-school workers have shown special interest in the "American Version" of the revised New Testament, edited by Dr. Roswell D. Hitchcock, that the publishers have prepared a cheap "comparative edition" of the Gospel of Mark. This contains on one page, in clear, legible type, the King James version and the English revision with its marginal notes as foot notes (following the style of the Oxford brevier edition), and on the opposite page the American Revised Version in full and fair long primer type—so that all three versions may be readily compared. (For critical opinions of "American Revised Version," see third page of cover.)

In addition to these three versions thus presented side by side, the little pamphlet contains a full list of the Sunday-school lessons for the entire year, with the Golden Text and page-reference, and a chronological index of events in the life of Christ, with special page-references to those mentioned by the evangelist Mark. It has been thought best not to encumber the work with any greater multiplication of references, comments, or other "helps."

PREFACE.

So many Sunday-school workers have shown special interest in the "American Version" of the revised New Testament, edited by Dr. Roswell D. Hitchcock, that, in response to frequent requests, a cheap "comparative edition" of the Gospel of Mark is herewith presented for Sunday-school use. This contains on one page, in clear, legible type, the King James version and the English revision with its marginal notes as foot-notes (following the style of the Oxford brevier edition), and on the opposite page the American Revised Version in full and fair long-primer type—so that all three versions may be readily compared. The American Version has been commended as "representing the best, the oldest, and the purest Greek text of the New Testament at present attainable, . . . and the most accurate English reading in existence of that Greek text." Dr. Hitchcock's admirable Preface to the American Version is given on the following pages, as a concise review of the whole question of Revision and the relative merits of the three representative English texts.

In addition to these three versions, thus presented side by side, the little pamphlet contains a full list of the Sunday-school Lessons for the entire year, with the Golden Texts and page-references, and a Chronological Index of events in the life of Christ, with special page-references to those mentioned by the evangelist Mark. It has been thought best not to encumber the work with any greater multiplication of references, comments, or other "helps."

AMERICAN VERSION.

THE Canterbury Revision of the Authorized Version of the New Testament, which was begun in 1870 and finished in 1881, is an Anglo-American compromise. Had there been an Anglican Revision without American co-operation, the changes would have been fewer. Had there been an American Revision without Anglican co-operation, the changes would have been more numerous, and also more radical.

For nearly eleven years, the Anglican Company of twenty-five Revisers and the American Company of thirteen worked together, though more than three thousand miles apart. Most of the changes proposed by either Company were concurred in by the other Company. And yet, after all their mutual concessions, each side yielding more than it cared to yield, there remained a considerable number of rejected American suggestions, a list of which, partly in classes and partly in detail, is appended to the volume issued from the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge.

These suggestions, which relate both to readings and to renderings, are here in this volume incorporated into the text. The present Editor, who was not one of the Revisers, considered it no part of his allotted task to make any other important changes than the ones thus indicated. He has merely worked up the suggestions of the Appendix; with the exception of adding one to the list of discarded archaisms by substituting "while" for "whiles," which occurs but twice.

It is proper to say, that neither the American Company of Revisers, nor any member of the Company, is responsible for the putting forth of this American Revision. The idea of it originated with the Publishers, whose names are on the title-page, and who have spared neither pains nor cost to have the work accurately done.

No book was ever translated perfectly; every language having its own characteristic idioms, for which there are no exact equivalents in other languages. But, on the whole, no book has endured translation better than the Bible. And of all the Versions of it, first and last, in all ages and in all languages, our Authorized English Version of it is confessedly one of the best. Many good people desire, and will accept, no other, preferring still to keep the old ancestral Book, reading the very words, in the very rhythm, with which they have been familiar from childhood.

Translators of the Bible are not inspired. The very Word of God, from which alone there is no appeal, is in Hebrew and Greek. Some portions of it are liturgical, and may be rendered with an eye to liturgical use. But all portions of it are incomparably sacred and precious; and our supreme duty in relation to it is to ascertain, if possible, and then to express, if possible, exactly its meaning, in every chapter and paragraph, in every sentence, in every idiom, and in every word. Rhythm may be studied, and old associations may be dealt with gently; but rhythm is only æsthetic, associations are accidental and changeable, and the most faithful renderings will finally be pronounced the best.

The feasibility of improving, and of greatly improving, the Authorized Version, is no longer an open question. Eleven years ago the task itself was undertaken with the expressed approbation, almost as it were by the commandment and authority, of the great bulk of English-speaking Christian people on both sides of the Atlantic, and all round the globe. During all these years some of the best Hebrew and Greek scholars in Great Britain and in the United States have bestowed their best endeavors upon this task. A portion of their work is now submitted to the intelligence and taste of the millions they have tried to serve. The Revised New Testament is before us, in a twofold form, Anglican and American. And our judgment is invoked concerning it.

This judgment must not be hasty. Nor will it, in the end, be passionate or prejudiced. Probably this Revision will not be accepted just as it is, in either form. But, in all the essentials of close and faithful rendering, it will be recognized as an immense improvement upon the King James Revision of nearly three hundred years ago, which must now begin to be laid aside. And as to the points of difference between the two Companies of Revisers, the renderings preferred by the American Revisers will, in most cases, be considered more exact and self-consistent than those preferred by their Anglican brethren.

Not much now remains to be done, compared with what has already been accomplished. Some better readings may be adopted, some awkwardly literal renderings may be improved, paragraphs may be shortened, remaining archaisms expelled, and rules, sometimes observed, may be observed throughout. With these emendations, so easy to make, we who speak the noblest of living languages may soon have the Book of books in a form very nearly perfect.

up, Jesus came into Galilee, preach-15 ing the gospel of God, and saying,
The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the gospel.
16 And passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net in the sea: for they were fishers.
17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to be-18 come fishers of men. And straightway they left the nets, and followed 19 him. And going on a little further, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were 20 in the boat mending the nets. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.
21 And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and 22 taught. And they were astonished at his teaching: for he taught them as having authority, and not as the 23 scribes. And straightway there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 saying, What have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of 25 God. And Jesus rebuked [1] him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out 26 of him. And the unclean spirit, [2] tearing him and crying with a loud voice, 27 came out of him. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying,
What is this? a new teaching! with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.
28 And the report of him went out straightway everywhere into all the region of Galilee round about.
29 And straightway, [3] when they were come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, 30 with James and John. Now Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and 31 straightway they tell him of her: and he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

they brought unto him all that were the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye,

and believe the gospel.
16 Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.
17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.
18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.
19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.
20 And straightway he called them: and out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying,
Hold thy peace, and come out of him.
26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.
27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.
28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.
29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever; and anon they tell him of her.
31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto mother lay sick of a fever; and straightway they tell 31 him of her: and he came and took her by the hand, and raised her up; and the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were sick, and them that were sick, and them that were [1] possessed 33 with devils. And all the city was 34 gathered together at the door. And he healed many that were sick with divers diseases, and cast out many [2] devils; and he suffered not the [2] devils to speak, because they knew him[3].

35 And in the morning, a great while before day, he rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and 36 there prayed. And Simon and they that were with him followed after 37 him; and they found him, and say 38 unto him, All are seeking thee. And he saith unto them, Let us go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for to this 39 end came I forth. And he went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out [2] devils.
40 And there cometh to him a leper, beseeching him, [4] and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou 41 wilt, thou canst make me clean. And being moved with compassion, he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be 42 thou made clean. And straightway the leprosy departed from him, and 43 he was made clean. And he [5] strictly charged him, and straightway sent 44 him out, and saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testi-45 mony unto them. But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the [6] matter, insomuch that [7] Jesus could no more openly enter into [8] a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

2 And when he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was noised that he was [9] in the house.
2 And many were gathered together, so that there was no longer room for them, no, not even about the door: and he spake the word unto them.
3 And they come, bringing unto him a man sick of the palsy, borne of four.
4 And when they could not [10] come nigh unto him for the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereon the sick of the 36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.
38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

AND he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.
2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,
3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:
4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.
5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:
6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.
7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.
8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred.
9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.
11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables: 12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.
13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?
14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.
15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately,

31 And there come his mother and his brethren; and,
standing without, they sent unto him, calling him.
32 And a multitude was sitting about him; and they say unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren with-that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and all 2 the multitude were by the sea on the land. And he taught them many things in parables, and said unto 17 with joy; and they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, straight-18 way they stumble. And others are they that are sown among the thorns; these are they that have heard the 19 word, and the cares of the [1] world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And those are they that were sown upon the good ground; such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold.
21 And he said unto them, Is the lamp brought to be put under the bushel, or under the bed, and not to be put on the 22 stand? For there is nothing hid, save that it should be manifested; neither was anything made secret, but that it 23 should come to light. If any man hath

4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.
5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.
6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.
7 ¶ And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;
8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse:
9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.
10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart from that place.
11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.
12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.
13 And they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.
14 And king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
15 Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.
16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.
17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.
18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.
19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel synagogue: and [1]many hearing him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things? and, What is the wisdom that is given unto this man, and what mean such [2]mighty works wrought by his 3 hands? Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And 4 they were [3]offended in him. And Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. 5 And he could there do no [4]mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed 6 them. And he marvelled because of their unbelief.

And he went round about the villages teaching.

7 And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and he gave them 8 authority over the unclean spirits; and he charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no bread, no wallet, no [5]money in 9 their [6]purse; but to go shod with sandals: and, said 10 he, put not on two coats. And he said unto them, Wheresoever ye enter into a house, there abide till ye 11 depart thence. And whatsoever place shall not receive you, and they hear you not, as ye go forth thence, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testi- 12 mony unto them. And they went out, and preached 13 that men should repent. And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard thereof; for his name had become known: and [7]he said, John [8]the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore do these powers 15 work in him. But others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, even as one of the prophets. 16 But Herod, when he heard thereof, said, John, whom I 17 beheaded, he is risen. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's 18 wife: for he had married her. king was exceeding sorry; but for the sake of his oaths, and of them that sat

CHAPTER VII.

THEN came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brazen vessels, and of tables.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do aught for his father or his mother;

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

15 there is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him: but the things which proceed out 17 of the man are those that defile the man.[1] And when he was entered into the house from the multitude, his 18 disciples asked of him the parable. And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Perceive ye not, that whatsoever from without goeth into 19 the man, it cannot defile him; because it goeth not into his heart, but into his belly, and goeth out into the draught? This he said, making all meats clean.
20 And he said, That which proceedeth out of the man, heart of men, [2]evil thoughts proceed, fornications,

daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, 26 came and fell down at his feet. Now the woman was a [4]Greek, a Syrophœnician by race. And she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter.
27 And he said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's [5]bread and him, Yea, Lord: even the dogs under the table eat of heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, his tongue was loosed, and he spake of broken pieces that remained over, the parts of Dalmanutha.

began to question with him, seeking of

CHAPTER VIII.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,
2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me
three days, and have nothing to eat: 3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.
4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?
5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.
6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.
7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.
8 So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.
9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.
10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.
11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.
12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

the ship again departed to the other side.
14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

another, [1] saying, [2] We have no bread.
17 And Jesus perceiving it saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet perceive, neither understand? have ye your heart hard-18 ened? Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye 19 not remember? When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many [3] baskets full of broken pieces took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.
20 And when the seven among the four thousand, how many [3] basketfuls of broken pieces took ye up? And they 21 say unto him, Seven. And he said unto them, Do ye not yet understand?
22 And they come unto Bethsaida. And they bring to him a blind man, and be-23 seech him to touch him. And he took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village; and when he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands upon him, he asked him, 24 Seest thou aught? And he looked up, and said, I see men; for I behold them 25 as trees, walking. Then again he laid his hands upon his eyes; and he looked stedfastly, and was restored, and saw 26 all things clearly. And he sent him away to his home, saying, Do not even enter into the village.
27 And Jesus went forth, and his disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi: and in the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Who do men 28 say that I am? And they told him, saying, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets.
29 And he asked them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answereth and saith 30 unto him, Thou art the Christ. And he charged them that they should tell no 31 man of him. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three 32 days rise again. And he spake the saying openly. And Peter took him, and 25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up; and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.
27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

14 And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning 15 with them. And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him 16 saluted him. And he asked them,
17 What question ye with them? And one of the multitude answered him, [1]Master, I brought unto thee my son, 18 which hath a dumb spirit; and wheresoever it taketh him, it [2]dasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not 19 able. And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? bring him 20 unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit [3]tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, and wal-21 lowed foaming. And he asked his father, How long time is it since this 22 hath come unto him? And he said, From a child. And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have com-23 passion on us, and help us. And Jesus said unto him. If thou canst! All things are possible to him that 24 believeth. Straightway the father of the child cried out, and said [4], I believe; help thou mine unbelief.
25 And when Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.
26 And having cried out, and [3]torn him much, he came out: and the child became as one dead; insomuch that 28 raised him up; and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, [5]saying, We could not cast it out.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.
20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.
21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.
22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.
23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.
24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.
25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.
26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.
27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.
28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?
29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

Son of man, that he should suffer many things and be 13 set at nought? But I say unto you, that Elijah is come, and they have also done unto him whatsoever they listed, even as it is written of him.
14 And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning 15 with them. And straightway all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to 16 him saluted him. And he asked them, What question 17 ye with them? And one of the multitude answered him, [1]Master, I brought unto thee my son, who hath 18 a dumb spirit; and wheresoever it taketh him, it [2]dasheth him down: and he foameth, and grindeth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast it out; and they were not able.
19 And he answereth them and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I 20 bear with you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit [3]tare him grievously; and he fell on the ground, 21 and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father,
How long time is it since this hath come unto him?
22 And he said, From a child. And oft-times it hath cast him both into the fire and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do anything, have compassion 23 on us, and help us. And Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! All things are possible to him that be-24 lieveth. Straightway the father of the child cried out, 25 and said[4], I believe; help thou mine unbelief. And when Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I command thee, 26 come out of him, and enter no more into him. And having cried out, and [3]torn him much, he came out:
and the child became as one dead; insomuch that the 27 more part said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by 28 the hand, and raised him up; and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked 29 him privately, [5]saying, We could not cast it out. And he said unto them, This kind can come out by nothing, save by prayer[6].

AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judea by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

35 And there come near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, [1] Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall 37 you? And they said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in

40 but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give: but it is for them for whom it hath been pre-

35 And there come near unto him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying unto him, [1] Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we 36 shall ask of thee. And he said unto them, What 37 would ye that I should do for you? And they said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and one on thy left hand, in thy glory.
38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink the cup that I drink? or to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?
39 And they said unto him, We are able. And Jesus said unto them, The cup that I drink ye shall drink; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall 40 ye be baptized: but to sit on my right hand or on my left hand is not mine to give: but it is for them for 41 whom it hath been prepared. And when the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation 42 concerning James and John. And Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them; and their great ones exercise authority 43 over them. But it is not so among you: but whosoever would become great among you, shall be your 44 [2] minister: and whosoever would be first among you, 45 shall be [3] servant of all. For the Son of man also came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

48 Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me. And many rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out the more a great deal, Thou son of 49 David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and said, Call ye him. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good cheer: rise, he calleth thee.

17 unto him, Cæsar's. And Jesus said unto them, Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him.
18 And there come unto him Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection;
19 and they asked him, saying, [2]Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave a wife behind him, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed 20 unto his brother. There were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and 21 dying left no seed; and the second took her, and died, leaving no seed be-22 hind him; and the third likewise: and the seven left no seed. Last of all the 23 woman also died. In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for 24 the seven had her to wife. Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not the scriptures, 25 nor the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but 26 are as angels in heaven. But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, 27 and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.
28 And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What commandment 29 is the first of all? Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel; [3]The Lord our 30 God, the Lord is one: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God [4]with all thy heart, and [4]with all thy soul, and [4]with all thy mind, and [4]with all thy 17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying, 19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.
21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.
22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.
23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.
24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?
25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.
26 And as touching the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:
30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.
31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.
32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there said unto them, Why try ye me? bring me a 16 [1]denarius, that I may see it. And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Render unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's. And they marvelled greatly at him.

24 for the seven had her to wife. Jesus said unto them, Is it not for this cause that ye err, that ye know not 25 the scriptures, nor the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as angels in heaven.
26 But as touching the dead, that they are raised; have ye not read in the book of Moses, in the place concerning the Bush, how God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God 27 of Jacob? He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.
28 And one of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together, and knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, What command-29 ment is the first of all? Jesus answered, The first is, Hear, O Israel; [3]The Lord our God, the Lord is 30 one: and thou shalt love the Lord thy God [4]with all thy heart, and [4]with all thy soul, and [4]with all thy 31 mind, and [4]with all thy strength. The second is this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is 32 none other commandment greater than these. And the scribe said unto him, Of a truth, [2]Master, thou hast well said that he is one; and there is none other but

35 And Jesus answered and said, as he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of

The Lord said unto my Lord,

42 And there came [5] a poor widow, and she cast in two mites, which make a 44 into the treasury: for they all did cast in of their superfluity; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

AND as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

sake, whom he chose, he shortened the 21 days. And then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ; or, 22 Lo, there; believe [1]it not: for there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall shew signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if pos-23 sible, the elect. But take ye heed:
behold, I have told you all things beforehand.
24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and 25 the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall be falling from heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens 26 shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in clouds 27 with great power and glory. And then shall he send forth the angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.
28 Now from the fig tree learn her parable: when her branch is now become tender, and putteth forth its leaves, ye 29 know that the summer is nigh; even so ye also, when ye see these things coming to pass, know ye that [2]he is nigh, 30 even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, until all these things be accom-31 plished. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass 32 away. But of that day or that hour knoweth no one, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but the Fa-33 ther. Take ye heed, watch [3] and pray: 34 for ye know not when the time is. It is as when a man, sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his [4]servants, to each one his work, commanded also 35 the porter to watch. Watch therefore: for ye know not when the lord of the house cometh, whether at even, or at midnight, or at cockcrowing, or in the 36 morning; lest coming suddenly he find 37 you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

shall rise, and shall shew signs and won-the elect.

When her branch is yet tender, and put-teth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:
29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.
30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.
31 Heaven and earth shall pass away:
but my words shall not pass away.
32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.
33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.
34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.
35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrow-ing, or in the morning:
36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.
37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

This is my blood of [3] the [4] covenant, drink it new in the kingdom of God.

him the purple, and put on him his garments. And they lead him out to crucify him.

21 And they [4]compel one passing by, Simon of Cyrene, [4] Gr. impress coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross.
22 And they bring him unto the place Golgotha, which 23 preted, The place of a skull. And they offered him wine mingled with myrrh:

24 but he received it not. And they crucify him, and part his garments among them, casting lots upon them, what 25 each should take. And it was the third 26 hour, and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucify two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on 29 his left.[1] And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ha! thou that destroyest the [2]temple, and buildest it in three 30 days, save thyself, and come down from 31 the cross. In like manner also the chief priests mocking him among themselves with the scribes said, He saved others; 32 [3]himself he cannot save. Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reproached him.
33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole 34 [4]land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, 35 [5]why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah.
36 And one ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let be; let us see whether Elijah cometh to take him 37 down. And Jesus uttered a loud voice, 38 and gave up the ghost. And the veil of the [2]temple was rent in twain from the 39 top to the bottom. And when the centurion, which stood by over against him, saw that he [6]so gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was [7]the Son of 40 God. And there were also women beholding from afar: among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the [8]less and of Joses, 41 and Salome; who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.
42 And when even was now come, because it was the Preparation, that is,
43 the day before the sabbath, there came

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.
24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.
26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
28 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.
29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.
31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.
32 Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.
33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.
36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone: let us see whether Elias will come to take him down.
37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.
38 And the vail of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.
39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;
41 Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him; and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem.
42 ¶ And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, Furthermore, this American Version is the most accurate English rendering in existence of that Greek text."—N. Y. Christian Intelligencer.

"Dr. Hitchcock has performed the necessary labor with the conscientiousness, ability, skill, and taste which would be expected from a man of his gifts and attainments."—New York Observer, September 15, 1881.

"It is said that none, even of the English issues (except the very elegant 'Presentation Edition') are free from blemishes and inaccuracies, and since the scrutinizing labors of months have been put upon this American Version to make it accurate and complete, it is probably as nearly perfect as anything we shall get in many long years to come."—New York Evangelist, September 15, 1881.

"Great pains have evidently been taken to make it accurate. . . . The typographical execution is admirable."—Dr. EZRA ABBOT, of the Am. Committee of Revision.
